Understanding Fostering

Check each box to indicate that you've read, understand and will follow the guidelines set out by the Wee Ones Dog Rescue

<input type="checkbox"/>	Do you understand and accept that changing an animal's environment may cause the animal to have accidents, especially in the early days of fostering?
<input type="checkbox"/>	Do you accept that Wee Ones requires all current and/or deceased animals that you have had in your household in the past 10 years be spayed/neutered before being eligible to foster?
<input type="checkbox"/>	If, for any reason, you are unable to keep fostering a dog, do you agree to notify Wee Ones immediately so that we can take possession and look for another foster family?
<input type="checkbox"/>	Do you agree to abstain from tethering this dog without direct supervision?
<input type="checkbox"/>	Do you agree to abstain from using electric training collars and fencing?
<input type="checkbox"/>	Do you accept that Wee Ones Dog Rescue makes no explicit or implicit guarantees in reference to health, and/or temperament or whether the animal is housebroken?
<input type="checkbox"/>	Are you willing to allow in-home checks, follow-up calls and verification of suitability of placement? This is mandatory for all fosters.
